Buddy System Now Offered By Coast Guard

Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer John Craig reminds all young men between 17 and 26 years of age that the Coast Guard now offers the Buddy System.

In describing the Buddy System, Chief Craig says, "you and your buddy can enlist now in the Coast Guard, our nation's only active peacetime service, and serve together through your basic training."

Upon completion of your recruit training at Alameda, you will be assigned to either a short or floating unit or, if you qualify for one of the many schools, you will be able to receive training in a field of your choice.

Interested young men are invited to contact Chief Craig in Room 104, Times Building, Long Beach, for further information.
